By the end of this workshop, you'll have...

- Used Markdown to write a webpage
- Learned a little about Docusaurus and GitHub Actions
- Started your technical portfolio (or web page of your choice!)

Before this workshop...

- Make sure you have a GitHub account: <https://github.com/join>
- Review “Getting Started” Guide for Markdown:
<https://www.markdownguide.org/>
- [OPTIONAL] We will not cover these in detail, but if you would like to learn more about the tools we are using.
 - Docusaurus: <https://docusaurus.io/>
 - Github Pages: <https://pages.github.com/>
